FOREST VIEW

Lovely Fall weather, the garden and flowers are so pretty.

We are glad Fall River bridge at "Hell Bent" has been completed and our road out to the main road has been put in good condition, which we much appreciate.

Miss Bessie Martin returned home last Saturday, after spending a week in Lynchburg visiting her uncle, Dave Nash, and cousin, Mary Coffey.

Miss Bernice Ford, who was sick in Lynchburg for several weeks, is spending some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Ford, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Evans, of Lynchburg, also spent the week-end in this home visiting her parents.

Mrs. L. D. Martin and three children, Dorothy, Purdum, and John, of Roanoke, spent a few days last week in the home of R. W. Martin.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Nash and children visited in the home of Mrs. J. W. Davis at Spring Mill recently.

Mrs. Eunice Davis Martin, of Natural Bridge, spent several weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Davis at Spring Mill.

She was here on account of the illness of her mother, who is some better. While there, Mrs. Decker and daughter, Mrs. Tanner, of Roanoke, visited in this home and all spent an afternoon in the home of R. W. Martin.

Mr. and Mrs. Hendricks, of Penn., visited her brother and sisters in the Har home last week, returning Saturday.

Our school opened at Petty's Fork last Friday with a good enrollment. The compulsory law is a good one, so many have said.

That they wish it had been in effect several years ago. We were so glad to have our same teacher, Miss Olive Lewis back with us, as the children progressed nicely under her management last year.

It is hoped we will have the best school year we have ever had.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Martin visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Martin recently.

Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Sims spent last Sunday in the home of R. W. Martin. Miss Verta, who has been working in Lynchburg, but has returned home to attend school, accompanied them and all attended services at Central Church Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Martin in company with Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Woodridge attended services at Liberty Church last Sunday and heard a splendid sermon delivered by Rev. W. S. Royal, of Lynchburg. It did us good to hear this good man again. Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Martin spent the afternoon in the home of A. S. Woodridge.

Little Everett Nash visited Thomas Ode last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Woodridge spent a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Woodridge recently. Rained all the time they were there and rained after they returned home, Roanoke river at Weldon, N. C., reported 40 ft. We sure have had rain plentiful, crops everywhere rich and thrashed away.

"I have taken Black-Draught ever since I was a child, and it has been a splendid medicine for family use," says Mrs. C. M. McHenry, of Soper, Okla. "My mother used it, in bringing up my family, and after I had a home of my own, I continued to use it, as I thought it was good to give the children."

"My children did not mind taking Black-Draught, and so when they got upset with stomach spills, or were constipated, I gave them Black-Draught too."

"They are all grown now and have homes of their own, but I still keep Black-Draught in the house and use it myself when I feel it is needed, and so when I get upset in the morning, feeling dull and headache, and have a bad taste in my mouth."
